ADAM AND THE MAGIC COSTUMES

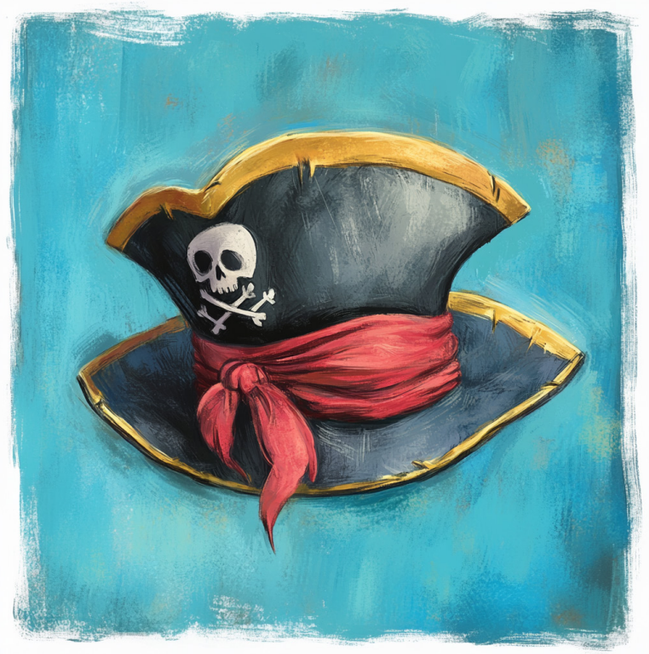

Adam was a curious boy who loved to explore. One rainy afternoon, he discovered a dusty, old costume box in his grandmother's attic. He opened the box and found costumes of all sorts—a pirate's hat, an astronaut's helmet, a knight's armor, and more.

Adam tried on the pirate's hat, and suddenly, he was on a grand pirate ship sailing the high seas.

As a pirate, he learned how to read maps and use a compass to navigate.

Next, he put on the astronaut's helmet and found himself floating in outer space among the stars.

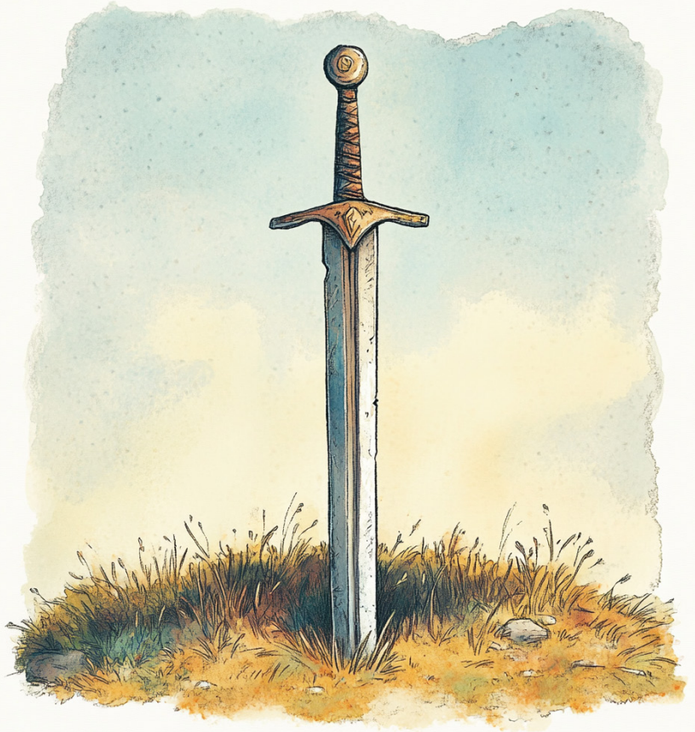

In space, Adam learned about planets, stars, and the wonders of the solar system.

Then, he wore the knight's armor and appeared in a majestic castle courtyard.

As a knight, he learned about courage, honor, and helping those in need.

After his adventures, Adam realized that every costume taught him something new and valuable.

He decided to share the costume box with his friends,
so they could all learn and imagine together.
